Pre-Conference Workshops and Seminars - Wednesday, December 1, 2010

A programme of optional seminars and workshops will take place on Wednesday, December 1st, offering participants the opportunity to learn a new skill, enhance their knowledge or gather information about a specific topic. Not only are such activities excellent opportunities in themselves but they are also extremely valuable pre-conference networking activities in their own right. These are either full or half day events and the number of participants is limited.

Full-day Events
